CLASS PROPHECY

BRADLEYAN SPECIAL 1968:

The Nation's spotlight was focused on the new Bradley High School yesterday. The reason was the reunion of the most famous class ever graduated from Bradley--The Class of 1938.

The gathering was more like a meeting of celebrities. "Doc." Lambert, known to the public as Dr. Marven Lambert, founder of the Famous Lambert Bros. clinic at Rochester, Minnesota, was back in his home town for the first time in ten years. Doc's aide, that little nurse with the doll face, Doris Hasemeyer, accompanied Doc to the reunion. Romance rumors are in the air for this pair. And to think they are only 46 years of age too.

"Lenny" DeLonais, the Barney Oldfield of Bradley, was there after achieving his life-long ambition to break the world's record for auto racers.

Nellie McCleary, now Mrs. Atkins, came bouncing in followed by her nine children. (She couldn't afford to hire anyone to take care of them on Kenny's W.P.A. salary.) Oh yes, Kenny came too--late as usual.

Three gentlemen (?) came next--as strange a trio as one ever saw. Ray Janssen, soldier in the Scotch regiment, Harold Neilsen, Bradley's gift to aviation,and Art Marlaire,coach and band instructor at the Tokio University. The great mystery of the day was how these three got together. The answer proved very simple. Harold, on his flight around the world, stopped in Japan and picked up Art. He stopped again in Scotland to get Ray.

Bernice Toliuszis came in dragging Frank Lustig. They have been married quite awhile now and it seems as if Frank has found out who is boss.

Frank Coyer, the President of the United States, was there too, again proving in the last election, that he still has over thirty million friends.

Frank was accompanied by Eugene Mayotte, who gave up his movie career to be the President's right hand and personal advisor.

General Foods was represented at the reunion by Fred Meyers, sales manager of the local branch office.

Margery Heinze, Home Economics teacher at Bradley, was right at home at the reunion. She has been teaching there for ten years.

The gathering was made complete with the coming of Robert Menard who is doing all right for himself by playing the stock market.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1938, of Bradley High School of the Village of Bradley, Kankakee County,State of Illinois, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, declare, and publish this to be our last Will and Testament.

I, Leonard DeLonais, hereby bequeath my Barney Oldfield ability to Clarence Stoltz.
I, Arthur Marlaire, hereby bequeath my athletic ability to Robert Martin.
I, Frank Coyer, hereby bequeath my scholastic ability to Delbert McCammon.
I, Nellie McCleary, hereby bequeath my Irish temper to Gertrude Hawley.
I, Eugene Mayotte, hereby bequeath my place as Romeo to Joe Dominick.
I, Bernice Toliuszis, hereby bequeath my "drag" with the teachers to Tony Toliuszis. (Trying to keep it in the family.)
I, Robert Menard, hereby bequeath my whistling ability to Glenn Mulligan.
I, Raymond Janssen, hereby bequeath my farming knowledge to Ross Flora.
I, Frederick Meyers, hereby bequeath my "gift of gab" to Robert Ryan.
I, Margery Heinze, hereby bequeath my shyness to Juliana Werner.
I, Harold Nielsen, hereby bequeath my half day of school to whoever wants it.
I, Doris Hasemeyer, hereby bequeath my vamp expression to Eleanor Smith.
I, Frank Lustig, hereby bequeath my love of studying to June Ralph.
I, Kenneth Atkins, hereby bequeath my art of telling "hard-to-believe-true" stories to Clyde Mulligan.
I, Marven Lambert, hereby bequeath my secret of skipping school and getting an "a" excuse to John Powers. (Too bad Lenny's graduating or I would leave it to him.)

JUNIOR CLASS

In September 1935, seventy-seven very green Freshmen entered Bradley High with a conquering look and a determined air. The upper classmen soon took the conquering look off most of the faces by administering initiations and remarks that the Freshmen could grasp only vaguely.

At first the new schedule baffled most of us but we set about to follow the actions of the other classes. Tony Toliuszis was chosen our leader for that first year and the outstanding event was the Freshmen Party.

As time went on, things became a little clearer and the green wore off. We were now anticipating our Sophomore year. In June, we were turned loose for three short months and then we were back, happy to know that our turn had come to heckle the new Freshmen. During that year Juliana Werner stepped into the harness and with the class cooperating, we showed the school which class had the best salesmen, by getting the most magazine subscriptions in a week. We also turned out some good athletes that year and one, Joe Dominick, made the first team in Basketball.

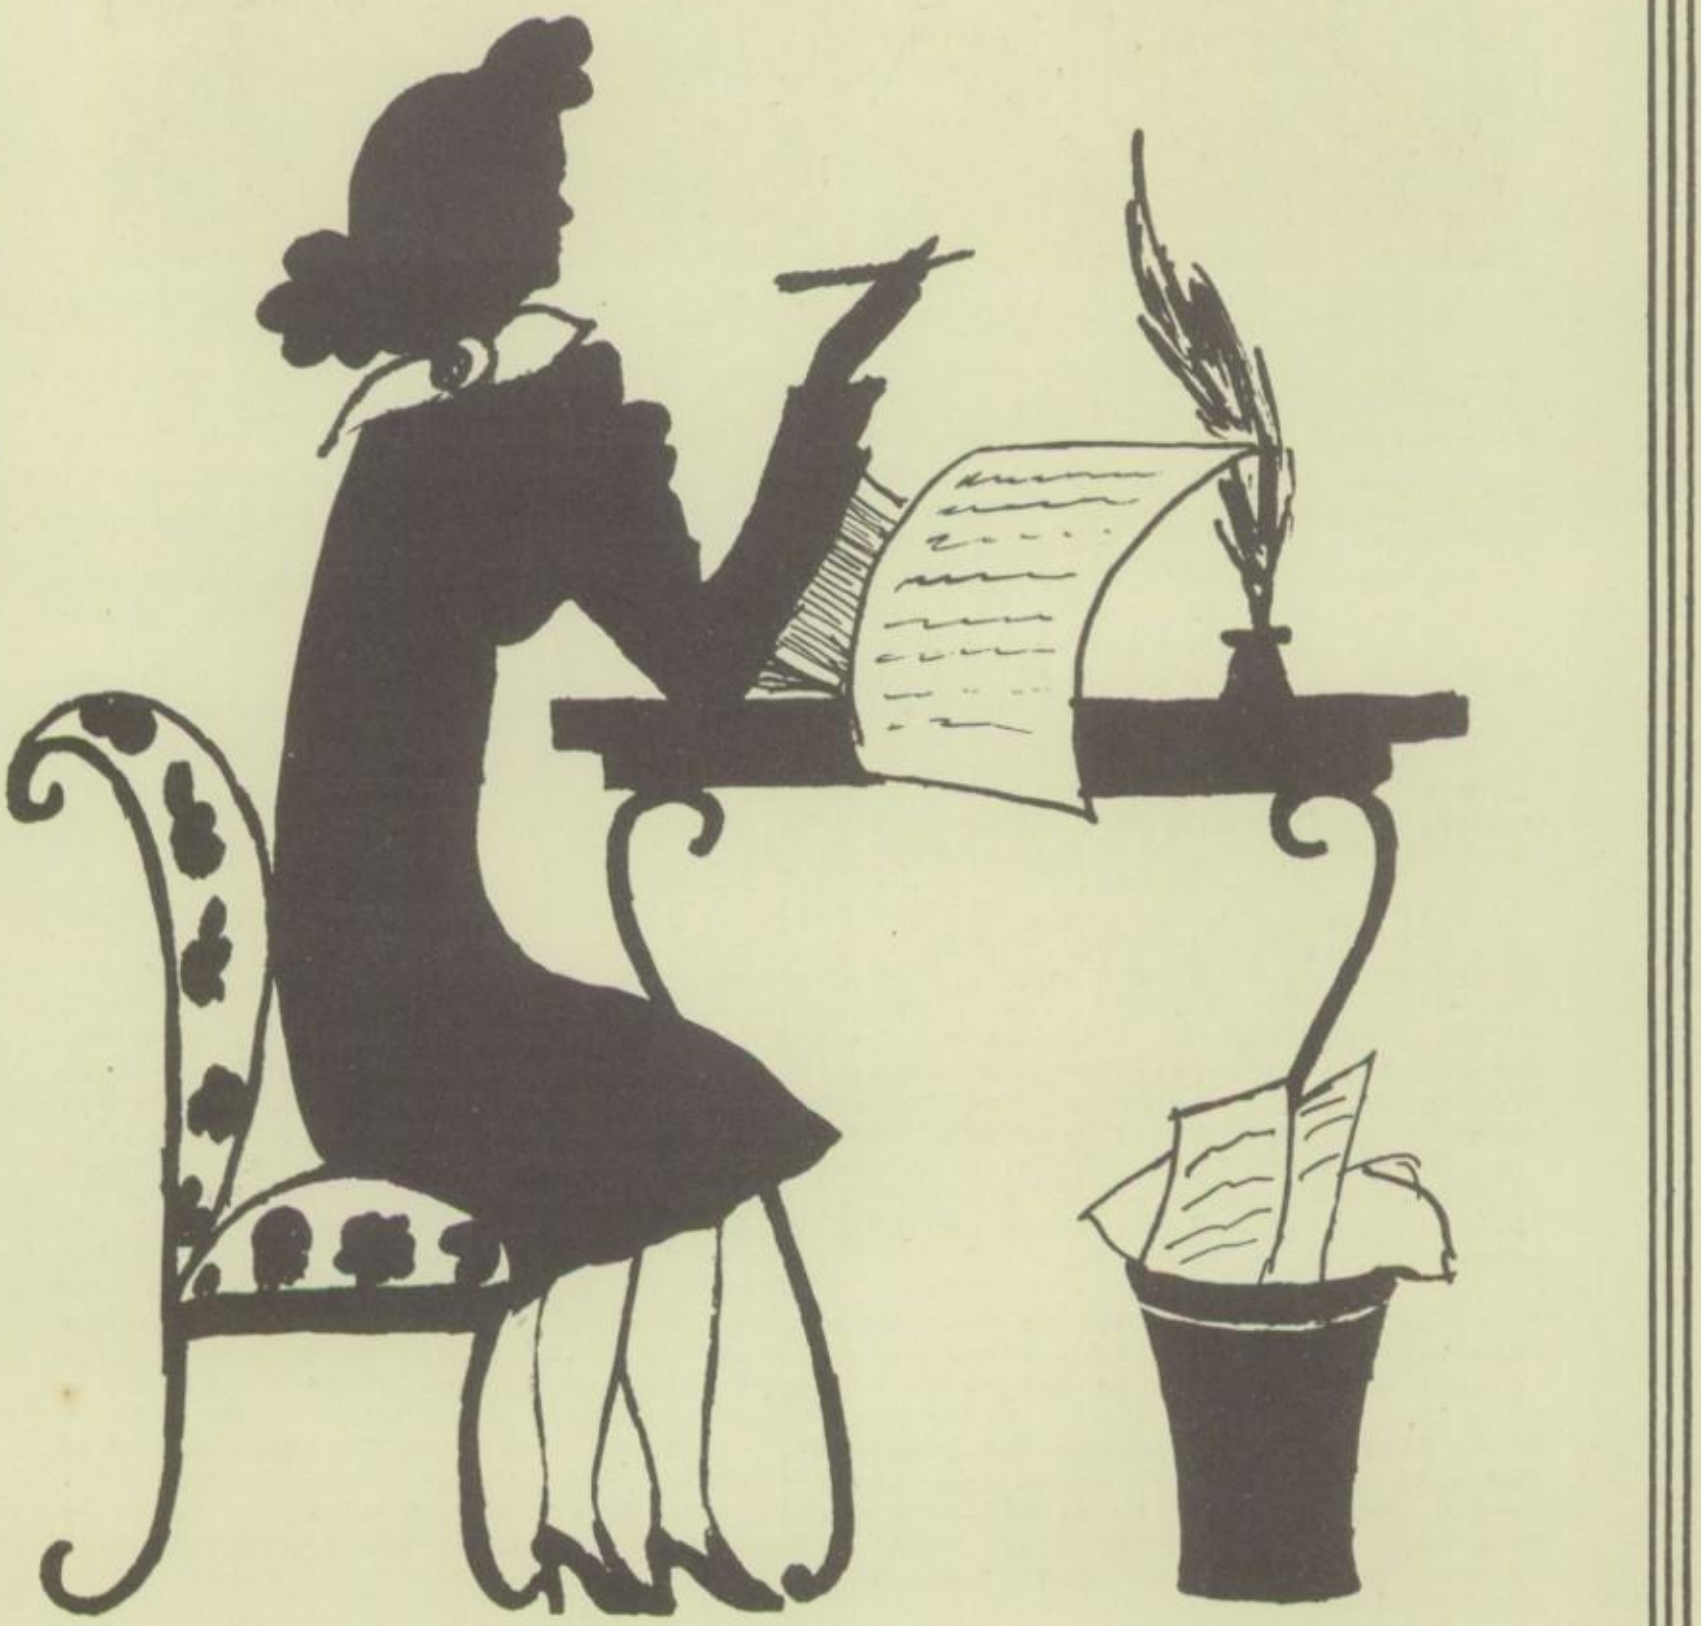

And now for our Junior year--Clyde Mulligan was elected to guide the ship and with all the class pulling at the oars, we really feel that we have gone places and accomplished things in our role of upper classmen.

First we undertook to sell advertising for the basketball schedules. Then we sold the "Bradley" pennants. Toward the end of our year, events came in thick and fast. On April 19, we sponsored the first dance ever to be given by the high school. On April 21, we introduced a new feature, the Spring Carnival. A more gala affair has never been witnessed.

May 7 found us at the Hieland Country Club entertaining the Seniors at the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

All events made up one of the happiest years of our lives but more are to come and we, the Juniors, intend to make the most of our Senior Year!

FRESHMEN

September 7, 1938 was a red letter day in the history of Bradley High School for that day new vim, vigor, and vitality were added to the institution with the enrollment of 67 Freshmen from Bradley and the surrounding community.

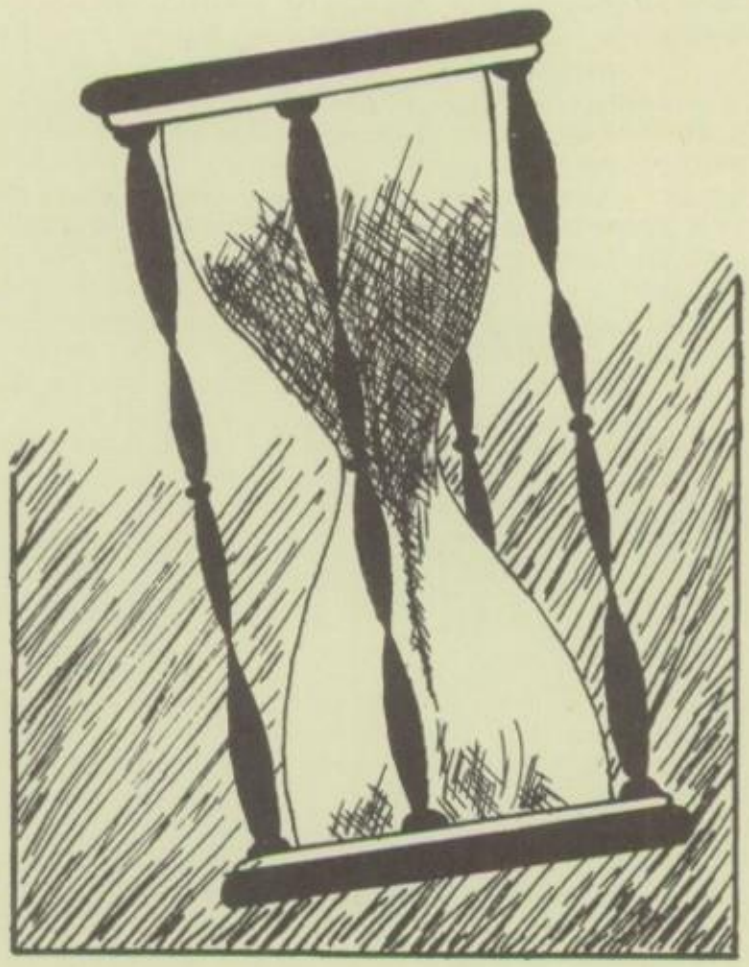

The first outstanding event of the year was our class meeting. At the class election Alberta Patnaude was chosen as President, Mark Marlaire as Vice-President, John Casino as Treasurer, and Edward Osenga as Secretary. Our aim has been to cooperate with them in every way.

The Freshmen Class has been very active in athletics. Edward Osenga, Elmer Janssen, Willie Ponikvar, and John Casino were members of the Lightweight team and received letters for their athletic ability.

The Freshmen girls organized a Hi-Hatters Club in November and they have as their motto, "If You Want a Club, Make it Such." The emblem is top hat and cane. The officers of the club are; President--Mae Tibbie, Vice-President--Mildred Hartman, and Secretary--Wanda Hertz.

Considering the progress already made, we Freshmen feel that we have good prospects for reaching our goal, which is to become before we leave as graduates, a truly versatile group of students, trying each in his own way to contribute to the success of our school.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club originated in 1929 by Miss Dorothy Dooley. This year was successful as the Girls Chorus won third place in the Annual Music Contest. In 1930 honor was again given to them for fourth place. The next few years Miss Williams had charge and the Club actively participated in the contests. A Music Festival was then organized in 1936. This eliminated competition, but kept the afternoon program in which each school was given eight minutes for its part. In the evening all the schools participated in the splendid group singing directed by a guest conductor. Since 1936 Miss Brock has directed the group.

Mixed choruses and boys glee clubs have also been organized several years.

Each year the organization elects officers. Regular business and social meet ings are held each month. Outside activities are often sponsored. One year the Club earned some money by selling candy and ice cream at the basketball games. This year a short play was presented for the high school assembly -- "Christmas With the Mulligans."

In addition to the County Music Festival, the Glee Club sings at a special program of their own on "Music Night" in the Bradley Gymnasium. This year they appeared at "Open House," "Band Concert," and "Baccalaureate."

The numbers sung on these occasions were "Homing," "Indian Dawn," "Italian Street Song," "Around the Gypsy Fire," "Bells of St. Mary," and "English Folk Song."

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Mr. McDougall was principal of the Bradley High School when the first Home Economics Class was organized. This class was taught by Rebecca Morritson. Since then Helen Stienhauser, Savea Torrelius, Helen Cole and Carrie Ryan have taught Home Economics. Jane A. Money is the present instructor.

When Miss Ryan began teaching in 1931, the department received its first coat of black and green paint. The girls painted the cupboards while the janitors painted the walls. The girls made and hung new curtains. New equipment was added each year to take care of the enrollment. New portable ovens were bought in 1930-32. The dinner set of dishes was added in 1935-36.

During the years from 1929-36, the only courses offered were foods and clothing, and with very few exceptions these courses were open to Sophomores only. In 1936-37 an advanced course was given to the Junior and Senior girls. This was Home Management.

In the first semester of the Home Economics Class, foods are taught. The girls learn the principals of meal planning and preparation. They study suitable foods for breakfasts, lunches, and dinners and in addition are taught how to serve these meals.

In clothing, which is taken up the last semester, the girls are taught how to sew. Besides this they study the selection of materials and color and the selection of becoming and appropriate clothing. That is, each girl is to make a study of herself to discover what color and lines will do the most for her.

This year the Home Economics girls made and sold scarfs in the school colors. They were red felt with white "B's" on them. They made a big hit with the students as ninety-six of them were sold. Part of the proceeds was used to buy a pinking machine for the class. The rest was put in the treasure of the Home Economics Club.

With a great deal of interest and enthusiasm a Home Economics Club was organized this year. Our aim is to keep this club a live, growing and worthwhile organization. We started with fourteen charter members and the following group of officers: President--Rose Smietanski, Vice-President--Betty Jane Kassman, Secretary--Frances Burkhalter, Treasurer--Gladys Hacker.

FOOTBALL

In the first game of the season, Bradley was nipped by Gilman in the last few seconds of play by a long pass from Carson to Johnson of Gilman. Bradley played a brilliant defensive up until the last few seconds. Score 7-0

We played our second game with Onarga. This game was brilliantly played but we were unable to score because of the wet, soggy ground. Score 0-0

Playing on a hot autumn day, Bradley again went down in defeat at the hands of Momence. Score 13-6

Bradley finally got started on its way to victory by defeating a strong Herscher team. Bradley's defense was outstanding. Score 13-0

Bradley's next worthy opponent was St. Pat's. Due to the outstanding passing of Mayotte to Marlaire, we were able to defeat this team. Score 7-0

Kankakee was the next victim of Bradley boilermakers by being outclassed and going down to defeat. Score 35-0

Bradley was downed by a powerful Milford team. Score 19-7

Bradley, playing a much larger school, went down in defeat to Hoopeston. Two touchdowns were made in the last minute. Score 18-0

Bradley lost three outstanding players--Mayotte, Lambert and Marlaire. These boys graduated with the Class of 1938.

ARTHUR ANDERSON

Arthur, son of Arthur and Nellie Anderson, was born February 19, 1918 in Bradley, Illinois where he grew to manhood and graduated from high school in the class of 1937. As a student he endeared himself to the hearts of his fellow students becausA of his consideration, love, and fairness to others. He attended the United Bretheren Church of this village. He was employed by the New York Central Railroad at Toledo, Ohio.

It was during a short visit with his beloved parents that his tragic end came.
